Dedication—Theme

We dedicate the 1963 ANTHONIAN to Pope John XXIII and our Bishops participating in the Second Vatican Council. May they be successful in communicating to the world the principles of Catholic living.

In a year of outstanding advancements in the field of communication, the 1963 ANTHONIAN bases its theme upon the special faculty of COMMUNICATION IN OUR STUDENT LIFE. Reflecting upon our lives, we perceive communication in its every facet.

There is the flow of ideas transmitted from teacher to student in the scholastic field. There is the body of manners and cherished traditions imparted at assemblies and activities. There is the grandness and greatness of school spirit communicated in every single area of school life.

Communication in our student life will help us to meet the challenge and demand of the future.

English summit conference: Brother James Gorman, Mr. Michael Nolan, and Mr. Frank Evans.

Brother George Leverman, C.S.C., prefect of discipline.

Sister M. Leo, girls' department vice-principal, and Maria Tisei, commissioner of activities, plan coming events.

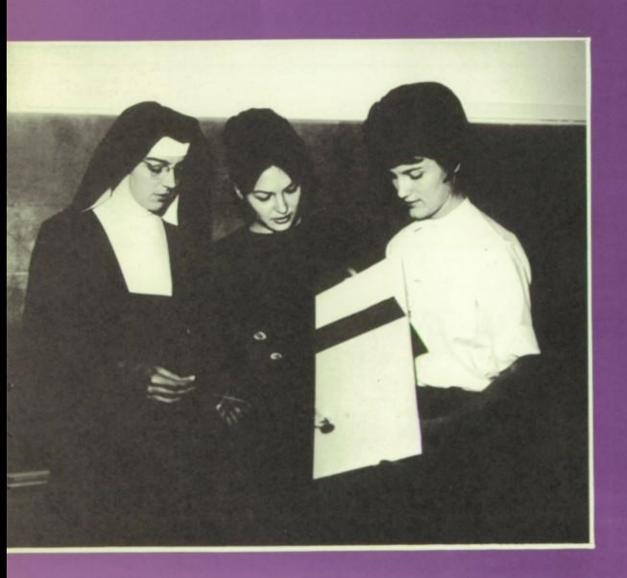

Brother Mel, C.S.C., boys' department viceprincipal and prefect of studies.

Sister M. Madeleine, Mrs. Frank Brownell, Mrs. James Chambeau, Sister M. Stephano, and Sister M. Eymard, English teachers, lighten their burden by sharing it.

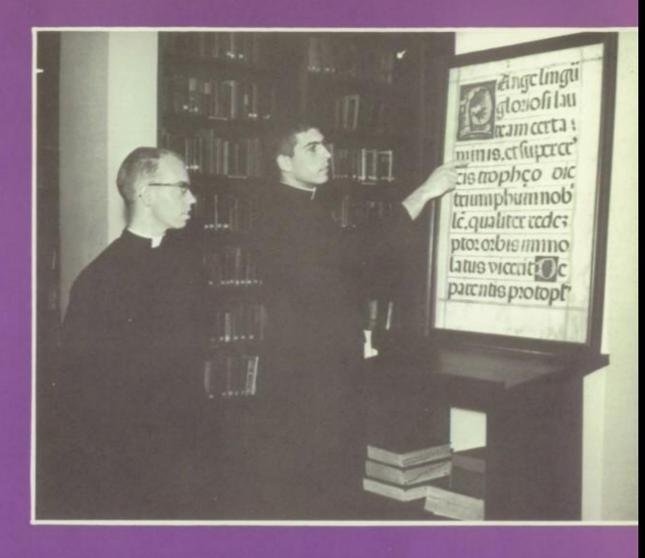

World history teachers, Mr. Henry SiJohn and Brother Cassin Miller, cover everything from Adam to John Glenn.

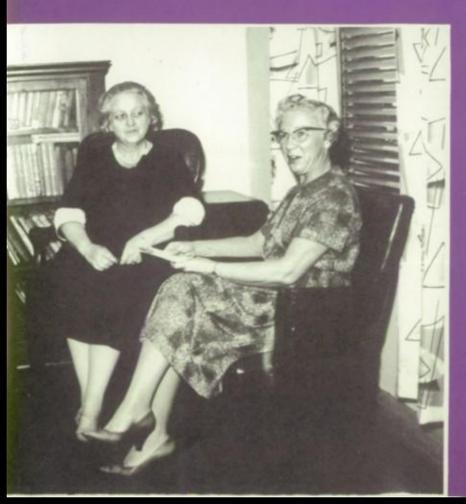

Math teachers, Sister Maria Goretti, Mrs. Michael Hatam, Miss Tamara Harwood, marvel at structural solids.

Brother James Weston, Spanish teacher, and Father Ralph Platz, Latin teacher, study the lettering of an ancient manuscript.

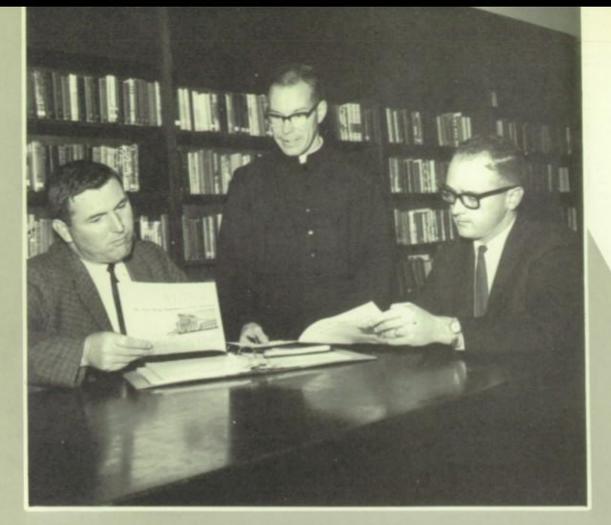

Relaxing in the faculty lounge are Mrs. Marvin McCormick, boys' office secretary, Mrs. Louis Monahan, librarian, and Mrs. James Conlan, boys' business office secretary.

Religion teachers, Brother Michael Adams and Father Dennis Burke, girls' senior religion teacher, discuss a new edition of the "Saint."

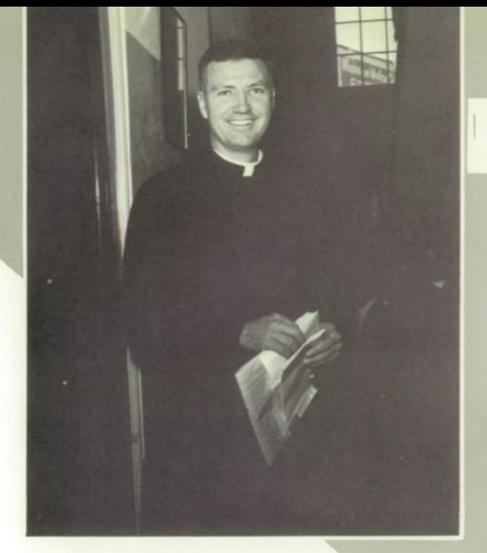

Mr. Thomas Carroll, Brother Alfred Salz, and Mr. Don Carlos of the Social Science Department survey the world situation through an "Outlook."

Sister Mary Grace, music teacher, and Sister M. Leo, vice-principal and Latin teacher, discuss a matter in the liturgy of the Church.

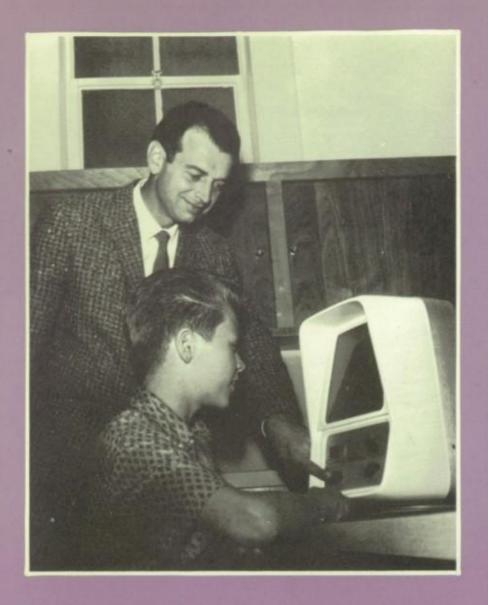

Father Sylvester Ryan, boys' senior ethics teacher and Phi Delta Theta moderator, pauses in the hallway after class.

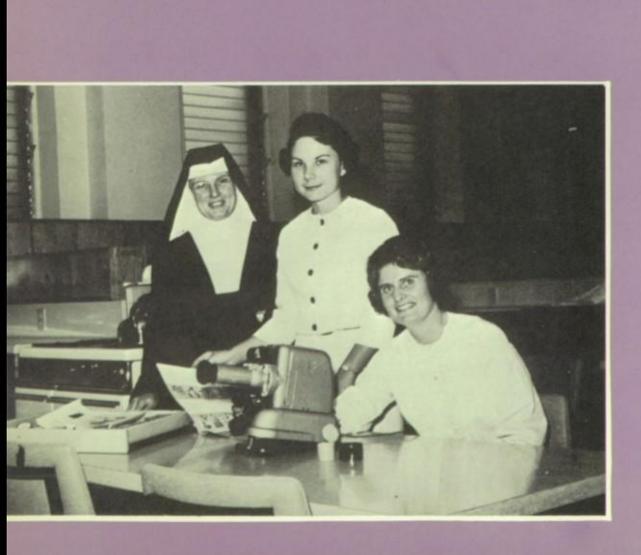

Mr. Richard E. Montgomery, boys' glee club director, rehearses with Nick Andrade.

English teacher, Sister Rose de Lima, while typing a book list, receives a few pointers from our commercial teachers, Sister Madonna Marie, and Sister Thaddeus.

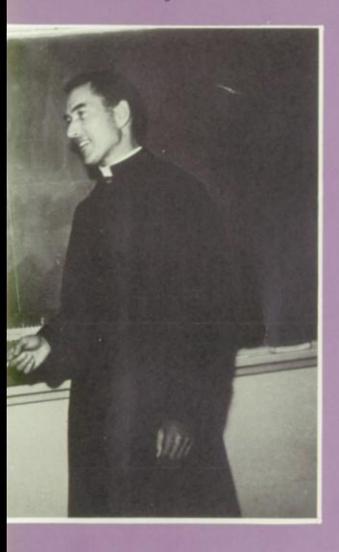

Mr. Jack Errian, head of speed reading course and social studies teacher, instructs Steve Hyman on use of a Craig Reader.

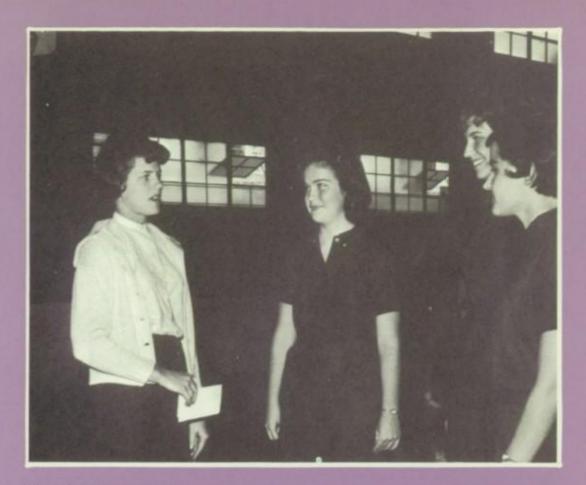

Sister M. Luke, art and home economics teacher, Miss Anne Gatlin, and Mrs. Edward Benthale — home economics teachers — view, via slide films, information which will make their department even more efficient.

Brother Bernard Weiseler and Brother Albert Martin, of the Mathematics Department, discuss new methods of teaching.

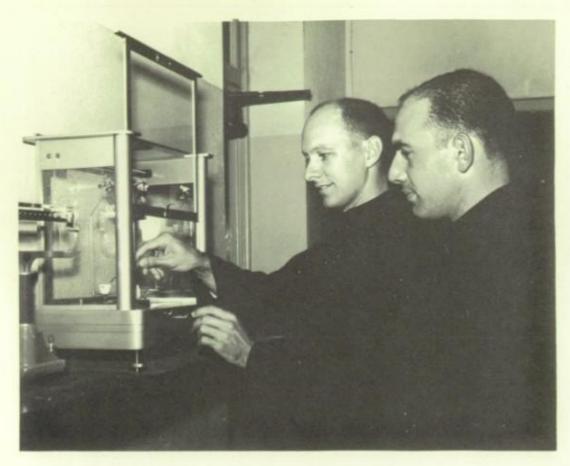

Sister Berta Alicia and Sister M. Dolores, Spanish teachers plan an activity for the Spanish classes with the assistance of Luciann Esposito and Yolando Rosales.

Miss Gale Doherty, girls' gym teacher, stops to give exercise directions to three of her students.

Brother Thomas Frey and Brother Francis Servidio of the Science Department experiment with new equipment.

Brother William Hold, Brother Marco Daly and Brother Richard Bergner, English teachers, take a break from classes.

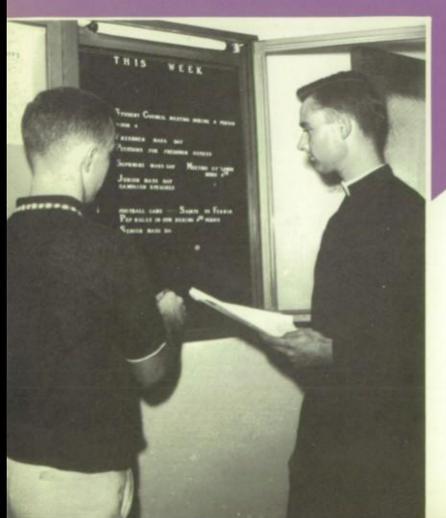

Mrs. James Gormly, health supervisor coordinator, and Mrs. John O'Connor, school secretary, help in keeping the school matters running smoothly.

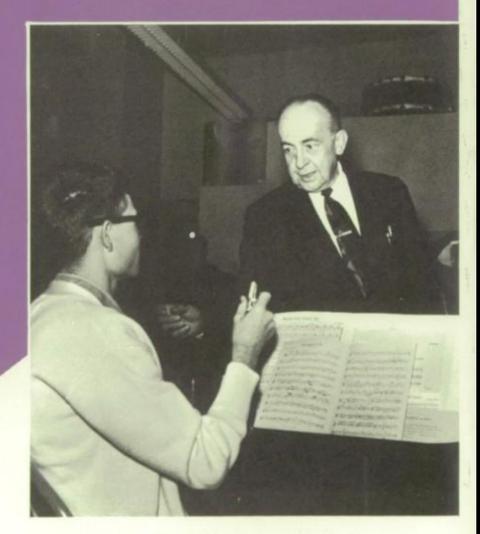

Sister Bartholomew, chemistry teacher, instructs Judy Wiater in the use of the tachistoscope.

Brother Charles Martinez, Spanish teacher and moderator of Bays' Student Council, checks coming events with Tom Christopher.

Band Instructor, Mr. Warren Plummer, gives helpful advice to cornet player, Bob Jones.

Mr. Phillip Wagner, science and social studies teacher, looks over outline for sociology class.

Practice drills in the French language are readily accepted by one of Sister Redempta's "udents.

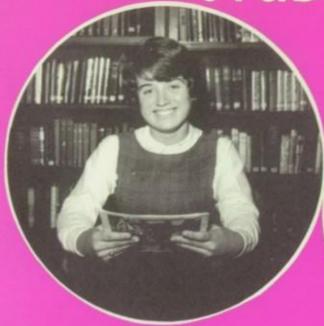

Sister M. Nivarre, Sister Mary Beata, Mrs. John Beattie, and Sister M. Jeannine discuss interesting history events of yesterday and current events of today.

Sodality

Judy Pilcher, Sister M. Dolores, Sodality moderator, and Rosemarie Spitt enjoy furthur discussion of a Sodality meeting.

Members of the Mission Committee approve Frugal Finds posters.

Darlene Tompkins and Vicky Diana hopefully search a Frugal Finds box.

Counting money for her quarterly treasurer's report is Virginia Kipp.

Vice-prefect Rosemarie Spitt and Prefect Betty Semmer (lower left) reorganize the file at the end of the school year.

The Sodality of Our Lady has for its primary purpose the furthering of devotion to its patronness, our Blessed Mother. Seven committees comprise the Sodality — the Library Committee, Catechetic Committee, Publicity Committee, Apostolic Committee, Mission Committee, and Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior-Senior Candidates Committees. These committees, through a variety of Catholic Action in the "homefront and apostolic work," carry out the Sodality's ultimate purpose.

Once a month the Sodality hosts a district meeting in the parish cafeteria. Topics of current interest to Sodalists ase reviewed through group discussion and secretarial reports. Members from each committee faithfully attend the Sodality Forum in Los Angeles. The peak in the activity calendar is the annual Mary's Day organized by Sodality leaders. Under the guidance of their head moderator Sister M. Dolores, I.H.M., and six committee moderators — Sister Eymard, I.H.M., Sister Jeannine, I.H.M., Sister Berta Alicia, I.H.M., Sister Rose de Lima, I.H.M., Sister Nivarre, I.H.M., and Sister Stephano, I.H.M., — the girls become strong Catholic leaders, spiritually equipped to spread the leaven of Christ and in the future to become zealous parishioners.

Mary Welch, secretary; Karen Kerr, member; Virginia Kipp, committee head; and Sister Jeannine, committee moderator, are seen with an SOS poster used in the Catechetic Committee's Campaign against smut.

Pat Sprauer, Darlene Elkins, Maria Tisei and Kathy Scully of the Library Committee help Sister Eymard in packing books for shipment to missions in Africa.

Doris Supancheck and Karen Miller of the Catechetics Committee guide two grammar school children in their catechism study.

Eve Guthrie, committee head, and Betty Semmer, prefect, carry on a discussion of the 34th Sodality Rule on daily duties with Vickey Riopelle, Mary Hirsch, Kathy Ortiz and Mary Herlehy of the Sophomore Candidates Committee.

Jane Donelly, committee head; Terri Fidler and Margaret Greely, member, and Marsha Brouillette, secretary, make hearts in preparation for a Valentine's party given for patients at Long Beach Memorial Hospital.

Peggy Lawlor, Louisa Blick and Kathy Lugert gather around the ditto machine as Sister Berta Alicia and Margaret Schuveiller of the Publicity Committee run off copies of the retreat bulletin and current Legion of Decency ratings.

Seniors are seen at prayer in chapel of La Casa de Maria Retreat House.

Prefect Betty Semmer reports at District Sodality meeting.

Seniors Jean Clay and Diane Poe enjoy dinner at Montecito.

Junior Michelle Spanier is seen in a moment of contempla-

Kathy Hotra and Michelle Spanier stroll along the trails of Montecito.

Candidates Kathy Pritchard and Linda Berlet are received into the Sodality by Rose Marie Spitt, vice-prefect, and Betty Semmer, prefect.

At a January district meeting sodalists Kathy Scott, Carol Galles and Kathleen Carlson pause for a moment during an informal discussion.

THIRD ROW: Jackie Thompson, Lupe Gonzales, Sharon Lander, Carol Bourgeois, Christine Adams, Peggy Jacobs, Irene O'Brien, Barbara Hopman, Sandy Hall, Theresa Maahs, Francine Conti, Anne Fallon, Kathy Sanchez, Margie Gurzi, Mary Ellen Horan.

Glee officers Frances Campbell, vice-president, Sandy Cutuli, secretary-treasurer, Cathy Burns, president, and director Sister Mary Grace listen to Glee Club accompanist, Marilyn Mistretta.

Special occasions for the cultural development of the girls include the Regional Festival and the Massed Concert held at the Shrine Auditorium.

Besides participating in these joint festivals with other schools, the girls entertain others by presenting a Christmas Concert, and a Spring Concert in May.

At the end of the year, the girls are rewarded for their generosity and perseverence at the annual Glee Club Banquet. At this event the girls can relax after a long year, look back at all the fun it's been, and look forward to the bigger and better things the next year will bring.

Select members of the Glee participate in the Regional Festival at Pius X High School.

SEASON SURVEY

This year was supposed to be a building season at S.A., but someone forgot to tell the team this and they came up with a very exciting season of football.

Though they lacked overall size and experience they made up for it in speed, determination and all out hustle. Although the record which was 5-4 wasn't very exciting in itself, the spirit was terrific.

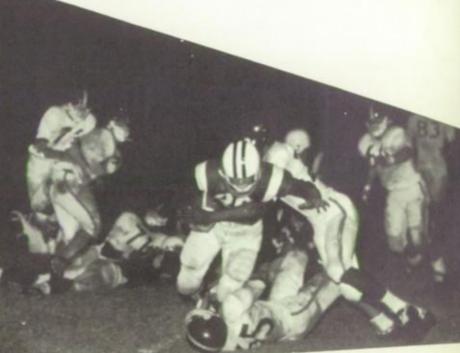

Individual stars were plentiful and 29 men lettered. Just to name a few stars: Tony VanCoutren (who led the city in rushing), Tommy Arboit (who was second to Tony for the city), and Jerry Jenson (who managed to gain over 400 yds.), were the offensive stars. On defense: Chuck Merino, Tony VanCoutren, and Tony Terry deserve recognition while Jim Graves, Jim Homan, Sam Briglio, and Dave Evans made up the heart of our line.

History will remember the 1962 season as being not as much as it could have been but much more than it was expected to be.

The Press Box keeps a sharp eye on the tricky Saint offensive team.

Jerry Jenson fights hard to gain eight yards — setting the Saints up for a first down and a touchdown.

Curran goes down, but not until he makes a gain of five yards.

Senior tackle Edmond Sotelo

Receiving excellent blocking, Tony Van-Coutren races for a touchdown in second period of the Compton game.

Not many years ago, the individual's world was small indeed. He—and even more so, she—was confined to the limits of a neighborhood, or a town, or a farm. But not today. Hawaii, once a far-off island of dreams, is just a "hop" away. Europe is a little further. Today's young people are going places—and dreaming about weekends on the moon. What distant worlds, we wonder, will tomorrow's young people dream about?

WHERE DO YOU GO FROM HERE?

...is college on the horizon, or are you contemplating a career?

Whichever it is, appearances are important...while 'clothes don't make the man or woman, they do create first impressions. Why not check with Buffums' Varsity Shop, if you're a man about business or Buffums' Young California Shop if you are a college or career gal . . . in either case, a favorable first impression is assured!

We'd like to see you!
